THE IDEAL HOLIDAYS FOR A STUDENT

HOLIDAYS ARE A SPECIAL TIME TO REST, RECHARGE, AND PREPARE OUR HEARTS AND MINDS FOR THE TERM AHEAD. HERE ARE TEN WAYS TO SPEND YOUR HOLIDAYS:

1

REST AND RECHARGE

Take time to relax your body and mind. Do things that bring you peace and help you feel refreshed.

REVISE LESSONS

Go over your Madrasah work regularly so you stay connected to your studies and don't forget what you've learned.

2

3

HELP AT HOME

Be a helper—whether it's washing the dishes, hoovering the house, or picking up groceries—your efforts truly make a difference.

ATTEND THE MASJID

Try to pray all five daily salahs at your local masjid. It brings blessings and strengthens your connection with Allah.

5

JOIN ISLAMIC ACTIVITIES

If there are Islamic talks or events at the masjid, take part and benefit. These gatherings bring light to the heart.

4

BE KIND TO FAMILY

Speak gently and behave kindly with your parents, siblings, and everyone at home. Good character begins at home.

6

7

REFLECT ON YOUR LIFE

Spend a few quiet moments thinking about your goals. What kind of person do you want to become?

VISIT OUR FAMILY MEMBERS

Take time to visit or call your grandparents, uncles, aunts, and other family members. Strengthening family ties is important in Islam.
